

YOUR Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____ Pts: _____

Special Project STUDENT EVALUATION: Presenter Name(s): _____

No evaluation rating for credit will be accepted WITHOUT comments

Rate this presentation on a 1-4 scale appropriate to the following:

1=no useful/interesting information, poorly presented, connections absent from presentation

2=some useful/interesting information, presented somewhat adequately, some attempt to include connections

3=most is useful/interesting information, presented adequately, information was included

4=exceptionally useful/interesting information, presented very well, information was well connected

1. Was the presentation easily followed and well organized? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

2. Was the verbal presentation clear and concise and able to be understood and heard by all? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

3. Was a visual aid (overheads, models, demonstration, etc.) used and did it enhance the explanation of this topic? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

4. Was a direct application of this subject made to real life? Rating? _____
Comment: _____

5. Did the closing summary and answer period clarify the material? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

J.Flint Baumwirt, Honors Chemistry, Granada Hills High School/CSUN Math, Science and Technology Magnet 1999 Rev.

YOUR Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____ Pts: _____

Special Project STUDENT EVALUATION: Presenter Name(s): _____

No evaluation rating for credit will be accepted WITHOUT comments

Rate this presentation on a 1-4 scale appropriate to the following:

1=no useful/interesting information, poorly presented, connections absent from presentation

2=some useful/interesting information, presented somewhat adequately, some attempt to include connections

3=most is useful/interesting information, presented adequately, information was included

4=exceptionally useful/interesting information, presented very well, information was well connected

1. Was the presentation easily followed and well organized? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

2. Was the verbal presentation clear and concise and able to be understood and heard by all? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

3. Was a visual aid (overheads, models, demonstration, etc.) used and did it enhance the explanation of this topic? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

4. Was a direct application of this subject made to real life? Rating? _____
Comment: _____

5. Did the closing summary and answer period clarify the material? Rating: _____
Comment: _____

J.Flint Baumwirt, Honors Chemistry, Granada Hills High School/CSUN Math, Science and Technology Magnet 1999 Rev.